

Around the world in 500 days (so far)

A FITZHEAD man cycling around the world for charity has been travelling for over 500 days . . . and he isn't done yet!

Ken Roberts celebrated his achievement in Queensland, Australia, having already covered two continents and 9000 miles since setting off on his four-year adventure in September, 2009. Ken hopes his epic journey will raise £45,000 for The Outward Bound Trust, which provides recreational and educational opportunities for young people. He decided to raise money for the Trust after taking part in one of its courses in the 1980s. For regular updates on Ken's progress or to donate to the Trust, visit www.acrosscontinents.org
