

Terms and conditions

Eligibility

To be eligible to be considered for the award of either Skippy or Wallace:

- (a) Donations must be made via Ken's JustGiving.com page (<http://www.justgiving.com/acrosscontinents>), together with
- (b) A valid e-mail address, visible to Ken as the page owner.

Donations are made strictly in accordance with JustGiving.com's own terms and conditions. They are not payment for a ticket, goods or services, nor are they refundable. Under any circumstances.

Donations made by, or on behalf of, Ken's immediate family, employees and agents of The Outward Bound Trust are not eligible for consideration for the award of either Skippy or Wallace.

Awarding of Skippy

Skippy will be awarded to the person making the largest eligible donation between 6 March 2011 and Ken's completion of the Australian stage of his expedition. In the event of there being more than one such donation, one will be chosen at random. Ken's decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Awarding of Wallace

Wallace will be awarded to the person making an eligible donation, between 9 April 2011 and Ken's completion of the Australian stage of his expedition, deemed to be accompanied by the most witty comment. Ken's decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Notification of the award

The person awarded either Skippy or Wallace will be notified of their success via the e-mail address provided when making their donation. If the address is no longer valid, or no reply is received within 14 days, Skippy will be awarded to the person making the next largest donation. Similarly, Wallace will be awarded to the person leaving the next most witty comment.

Failure

Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure Skippy and Wallace make it safely across Australia with Ken, and subsequently to the person making the largest eligible donation or leaving the wittiest comment, no liability will be accepted for failure due to cyclones, flooding, loss, theft, electronic problems such as website corruption or e-mail delivery failure, misplacement of the marsupial by Australia Post etc.. Remember, donations are just that. Donations.

Acceptance of the terms and conditions

The making of a donation is considered to be acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Applicable Law

These terms and conditions are subject to English Law.

Safety note

Skippy and Wallace are not suitable for children under 3 years of age.

And finally

Neither the awarding of Skippy or Wallace to a good home is considered to be a lottery as defined by the Gambling Act 2005. But, even if it was, then it'd be an incidental non-commercial lottery. Which doesn't require a licence. Or registration with a local authority. So, either way, perfectly legal. Well, this is an ethical venture. So you'd expect me to consider these things.
